ALDERMANIC DOINGS

Capt. Fry Declines to Serve—G. W. Denny Succeeds Him.

The board of aldermen held a regular meeting last night, Mayor Taylor in the chair. Absent: Hunter, Merrimon and Merritt.

The mayor announced that Capt. J. W. Fry had declined to serve as a member of the board from second ward. G. W. Denny was elected to fill the vacancy.

License to sell fresh meats on Ashe street, outside the old corporate limits, was granted to Nelson & Brown, colored.

M. L Stewart filed his resignation as a member of the police force and the same was accepted.

Alderman Price moved that the election of an officer to succeed Mr. Stewart be postponed. The motion was lost and on motion of Alderman Phillips the board went into the election of an officer to fill the vacancy. The following made application for the place: John B. McCauley, Robt. Allen, H. S. Patterson, John W. Cates and W. G. Jeffries. Cates was elected on first ballot.

Alderman Hunter being frequently absent from the city, Alderman Walker was appointed to represent him on all committees, when he could not be present.

Julius M Dick was granted license to sell fresh meats at the stand formerly occupied by L. E. Duffy, on Spring Garden street.

The board adjourned to meet next Friday night.

DREYFUS FOUND GUILTY

The Vote Stood Five to Two in Favor of Conviction.

THE TROOPS QUICKLY MASSED

For Fear of An Outbreak—Verdict Announced Amid Wild Excitement—5 Years of Servitude.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Rennes, Sept. 9—Demange concluded his wonderful address at 11:35 this morning, when the court adjourned until 3. Carriere briefly stated that the court would deliberate upon the verdict. A loud clapping of hands greeted the conclusion of Demange's address Dreyfus was impassive, but as he left the stage he said to those around him, "I am not guilty" Bayonets clash on all sides of the Lycee.

THE JUDGES RETIRE.

Rennes, Sept 9—The court has retired to deliberate on the verdict.

8,000 TROOPS AT RENNES.

Rennes, Sept. 9—A triple row of gendarmes guarded the door of the room into which Dreyfus was taken soon after Demange finished. Nobody was allowed to approach this door upon any pretext. The police kept watch upon everyone in the court room.

Three thousand troops arrived last night. There are now eight thousand troops here.

DREYFUS GUILTY.

Rennes, Sept. 9—Dreyfus was found guilty. Jouaust announced the verdict amid wild excitement. Troops were quickly massed for fear of an outbreak.

THE VOTE.

Rennes, Sept. 9—The vote stood 5 to 2 for conviction. The court sentenced Dreyfus to ten years' imprisonment in the military career.

5 YEARS MORE OF TORTURE.

Rennes, Sept. 9—Dreyfus having served four years and eleven months will have to spend little more than five years in prison.

THE DON'T WANT TO FIGHT.

The Boers Say the Purpose of Their Last Dispatch Was Mistaken.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Cape Town, Sept. 9—The Transvaal government now officially states that the purpose of their last dispatch has been mistaken, their desire being to accept Chamberlain's proposal for a joint commission to discuss the franchise. They also say they are only waiting for England to name the commissioners and suggest a meeting place.

Serious Wreck.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Allentown, Pa., Sept. 9—A serious wreck occurred this morning on the Perklemen Railroad near Vera Cruz A tree had blown across the track in a storm just before the passenger train arrived. The engine and the first car passed over the tree, but the rear car was ditched. Conductor Turner was seriously injured, and Brakeman Harnersley slightly hurt.

THE BENBOW BANKRUPTCY CASE

Southern Loan & Trust Company Sustains its Injunction.

S, L Trogden, clerk of the U. S. District court today received the decision of Judge Ewart in the Benbow bankruptcy case, argued before him at Hendersonville three weeks since.

The court decides that the trustee—the Southern Loan & Trust Company of this city—has the right to sell the property upon giving bond in the sum of $25,000, and that the proceeds of the sale will be held to await the determination of the rights of creditors according to their leins.

As is well known, Charles D. Benbow purchased several judgements, which he claims have priority, and it is thought that the property will not sell for more than will satisfy the judgements held by him.

It is understood that an appeal will be taken to the circuit court of appeals to have Judge Ewart reversed.

A Heavy Double-Header.

Number 36, the northbound fast mail, due here at 12:06 p. m. was 45 minutes late today, the delay being caused by a hot box on engine No. 354, which was pulling it. When the train reached here the big engine was sidetracked and two smaller ones—numbers 968 and 1019—took its place. The two babies, which were the largest among a dozen on the yard here, had a hard time in getting the long train started and their combined strength could not pull the train on time. The authorities here wired to Danville to have a big engine sent out from there to meet the train and pull it on the trip.

Nothing is impossible to the man who can and will do; this is the only law of success.—Mirabeau.

WAS THERE INFANTICIDE?

Startling Discovery of a Colored Laborer, Thursday.

In all probability another infanticide—the second within a year—has been committed in Greensboro, and it is also probable that sensational developments may occur within the next few days.

While digging a ditch last Thursday in the vacant lot west of E. E. Bain's lumber mill, where the Southern is preparing to put in its new turn table and spur tracks, one of the colored laborers unearthed what he believed to be the body of a white infant. It was securely tied in a tow sack and buried about eighteen inches below the surface.

The man showed his find to some of the men working near him, but the odor emanating from the sack was so offensive that they could not remain near it long enough to investigate. The man who found it, however, says that he saw the head of a white infant through a hole which was torn in the sack by his shovel. The body had the smell of a decayed corpse.

The men, without thinking to report to the police, threw the body into a cart and hauled it to a point on the railroad, several miles from town, where it has since been buried beneath great loads of dirt which is being hauled away from here.

News of the startling discovery did not reach the ears of the police until this morning. Immediately upon learning of it Chief Scott, accompanied by Officer Jordan, went to the scene of the discovery and learned the above details. The police are, therefore, at work without any clue, but there is a probability that the perpetrators of the horrible scandal may be brought to justice.

Look Out for Colonel Jeems.

Col. John N. Staples has received a letter from Col. Jas. E. Boyd, assistant attorney general of the United States, in which he says he will probably arrive in Greensboro on the evening of the 12th on business of considerable importance, namely, to attend the circus on the following day. Col. Jeems confesses in a humorous manner that he has a "weakness" for circuses, and especially for John Robinson's. He wants to see John Lowlow. Come on, Colonel, you're always welcome.

SENATOR JAMES K. JONES

Will Sail for Home from Europe on September 30

THE TRIAL OF CAPT. DREYFUS.

Nothing Else Talked of at Washington—Generally Thought He Will Be Again Convicted.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, Sept. 9—Mr. James K. Jones, Jr., son of Senator Jones, of Arkansas, is in Washington. Mr. Jones accompanied his father and mother to Europe where they have been sojourning for the benefit of the senator's health, and the former returned to this country last week, in advance. In speaking of his father, Mr. Jones stated the other day that contrary to published reports, the senator's health has been considerably benefitted by the trip across the waters. While his health has been restored, his physician has recommended him not to return to this country until the hot weather has passed.

Senator Jones has engaged passage to the United States for himself and wife, and will sail for home September 30th. Upon the senator's arrival he will go at once to his home in Arkansas, and will resume his duties as the head of the democratic national committee, and also his senatorial duties which have been more or less neglected during his long absence. Mr Jones says that his father has no present intention of retiring from the head of the democratic committe, and that all talk in that direction is without foundation, and is unauthorized. Senator Jones is anxious for democratic success both this year and next, and he will work actively upon his return to the United States to bring that result about,

Senator Jones, according to hisson, has been kept fully informed as to the progress of the political affairs in the United States during his absence in Europe He regards the situation as being much improved within the last few months, and believes that the chances for a democratic victory this fall are very good. The senator is mostly concerned about Ohio, Kentucky and Maryland.

As the trial of Captain Dreyfus nears its completion, and his fate becomes a matter of settlement within a few hours time, the interest in Washington increases. But little else has been talked of in the public departments, hotel lobbies, and other places where men gather. The general belief here, as elsewhere, in this country at least, is in the innocence of Captain Dreyfus, and while many hope for ultimate acquittal, the general trend of opinion is that he will again be convicted.

At the French embassy in this city it is said that reports received indicate that everything at Rennes and Paris, and other cities of France, is quiet, though the people are evincing the most intense interest. It is not admitted at the embassy here that there is any likelihood of trouble in France when the verdict is announced, as many in this country seem to think. It is said that the people will submit to the verdict of the court-martial whatever form it may take. In order to be on the side of precaution, however, it is said by the attaches of the embassy that as soon as practicable after the verdict is announced Captain Dreyfus, whether it is in his favor or not, will be spirited away from Rennes as secretly as possible. Every precaution has been taken, it is said, to prevent an outbreak of ungovernable passion on the part of the populace.

The condition of General Heth, the well known ex-Confederate who has been sick in this city for a long time, has not improved, and his friends have given up hopes of his recovery. It is said that he is very near his end. His paralysis has become general and he is totally unconscious. It is said that the dropsy has now extended to his head.

Representative Sherman, of New York, who was a prominent candidate for the speakership of the next house, is in the city. Mr. Sherman is not disturbed over his defeat by Colonel Henderson, the successful candidate. Mr. Sherman believes that the coming session of congress will be a busy one and he thinks adjournment will be reached by the first of July. He says that so far as he is concerned he would be in favor of assembling, passing the appropriation bills and then adjourning sine die.

Postoffice sites have been changed in North Carolina as follows:

May, Harnett county, ½ mile north; Obids, Ashe county, one mile west; Pino, Davie county, ½ mile west; Semora, Caswell county, half mile southwest.

Postoffices have been discontinued as follows:

Bennett, Anson county, and Scott's Creek, Jackson county. Mail to the former office will be sent to Jones Creek, and to the latter office to Alice.

Rev. F. Edwards, of Newbern, is among the North Carolina visitors in Washington. He is stopping while here at the National hotel.

John T. Pullen, of Raleigh, is also at the National.

AN AUSPICIOUS OPENING.

Fall Session of Bingham School—Good Attendance of New Students.

Correspondence Telegram.

Bingham School, Mebane, N. C., Sept. 8—The fall session of the Bingham School of Orange county has opened most auspiciously. The campus of the school, which is one of the largest and most beautiful in the state, is looking its prettiest, and the weather from the beginning of the session has been faultless, an unclouded sky making everything beautiful and cheerful.

Besides a good attendance of new students, indications are there will be more old boys back again in school than for many years past, and the high character of the boys who have entered has already attracted much attention. Prof. Gray, together with his faculty composed of Messrs. Charles H Johnston, A. W. Mangum, J. S. Clay, M. C. Nixon, R A. Winston and George L Hampton are all on the grounds and regular work is going on. A very attractive reception will be given in a short time to the new students, and this pleasant event is looked forward to with much pleasure.

MRS. J H MERRITT DEAD.

Passed Away at 8 O'clock this Morning.

Mrs. J. Harper Merritt died at eight o'clock this morning at Mr. Carter's, on South Forbis street, where the family have been boarding for some time. In the death of Mrs. Merritt a good woman passes away. She had been a victim of consumption for three years and had suffered incessantly during that time. She was a devout Christian and bore her suffering without complaint and cast a good influence over those who came in contact with her. She leaves a devoted husband and two bright little boys, besides a number of other relatives and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. She was a member of West Market street Methodist church.

The funeral services will be conducted from Mr. Carter's tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, by Dr. J. C. Rowe. The remains will be interred in Greene Hill cemetery.

NO WAR IN THE EAST.

There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip. Yesterday it seemed a certain thing that war was about to occur between England and the Transvaal. But today the situation has perceptibly improved. It is stated that Kruger meant his last note to Chamberlain as an acceptance of the British proposal for a joint commission. And then it is further developed by the Associated Press correspondent at London that the queen, out of her overpowering religious scruples, probably, would not permit a cruel war, no how.

Whatever the cause is for such a sudden reversal of the situation, it is certain that since the cabinet meeting at London yesterday, out of which the members came arm in arm and laughing with each other, it seems that a war now between the British and the Boers is out of the bounds of possibility.

From time out of mind Western North Carolina has been able to show up the "oldest person in the world." And the following item from a Rutherfordton special to the Charlotte Observer is not surprising:

Rutherford county has the oldest person in the United States and no doubt the oldest in the world. Her name is Mrs. Nancy Hollifield, and she lives two miles from Ellenboro. She is 118 years old and until five years ago she could walk the distance to Ellenboro with all ease. She now uses a rolling chair. Rev. Dr. C. Lee, who died last summer, looked up her age three years ago and she was 115 then. He was about 85 when he died, and often said he could remember well when he was a small boy she nursed him, and that then she had several grown children. This is a true story, and well known to the people of Rutherford county. She is bright, cheerful and talkative, and is now enjoying good health, and can be seen any time at Mrs. William Smart's.

There was a cabinet meeting yesterday at Washington in which the day was devoted to a discussion of the local governments to be established in the Philippines on the cessation of hostilities. This is like counting the eggs before they are hatched, in view of the small progress our army has made toward the subjugation of the Filipinos. A discussion of how to first lick those irrepressible negroes would have been a much more sensible subject for the cabinet members to kill a whole day upon.

The approaching horse show, county fair, and general gala time, at Winston-Salem, promises to be a big thing. The Twin City patronized our gala week with unrestrained generosity, and Greensboro will pay our clever neighbors back next month.

Yellow fever is gaining a pretty good hold in several southern cities, particularly at Key West, Fla., where there have been 127 cases to date and nine deaths. Yellow Jack's greatest foe is White Jack, and until the frost king come, the disease will continue to create consternation and death in abundance.

"We will turn France upside down if they convict this man (Dreyfus)."
--M. Jaures, the socialist leader.

A Wonderful Cure of Diarrhoea.

A prominent Virginia editor had almost given up, but was brought back to perfect health by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. Read his editorial. From the Times, Hillstille, Va.

I suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and thought I was past being cured. I had spent much time and money and suffered so much misery that I had almost decided to give up all hopes of recovery and await the result, but noticing the advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy and also some testimonials stating how some wonderful cures had been wrought by this remedy, I decided to try it. After taking a few doses I was entirely well of that trouble, and I wish to say further to my readers and fellow-sufferers that I am a hale and hearty man today and feel as well as I ever did in my life.—O. R. Moore, Sold by C. E. Holton.

Waiting.

The people all are waiting,
Waiting anxiously you know,
For the thirteenth of September,
For on that day comes the show.
The show that North Carolinians love
The show known far and near,
They're waiting for the Robinson show
Which on that day will be here.
They will see the great procession
As it marches through town.
They will hear the charming music
With the bands of great renown.
They will see the gorgeous cages,
They will see the funny clown,
For John Lowlow will be with it
When the big show comes to town.

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSOM, VA., Dec. 21.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the liver is inactive you have a bilious look; if your stomach is disordered you have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneys are affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good alterative and tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Holton's drug store. 50 cents per bottle.

One Minute Cough Cure, cures
That is what it was made for.

The fetishism of savage Africa makes us shudder, and fills us with disgust. Yet we have fetishes of our own, one of them great, widely-worshipped, and in whose name crimes innumerable are daily perpetrated. The name of that fetish is Ignorance.

To that powerful fetish thousands of mothers annually make sacrifice of their daughters. For what is it but a sacrifice to the fetish Ignorance to permit girls to blossom to womanhood, and enter the marriage relation without one helpful hint of the obligations of that relation and its physical perils?

Just the word which the mother fails to speak would turn the young girls' attention to the danger of irregularity. For it is in the ignorance of the necessity for regularity in the periods that the foundation is laid for the debilitating drains, the female weakness, bearing-down pains, inflammation and ulceration that rob marriage of joy and motherhood of happiness.

That "God-send for women" as women have named it, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, establishes regularity of the periods, dries up all unhealthy drains, cures female disease, and inflammation and ulceration of the peculiarly feminine organs.

Women suffering from diseases peculiarly feminine, may consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, by letter at the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, absolutely without charge or fee. Each letter is opened in strict privacy, read as sacredly confidential and to preserve the seal of confidence unbroken, all replies are sent in plain envelopes, bearing no single word of printed matter.

Robbed on the Train.

Albert Brock, a young traveling man from Winston, was robbed of $36 in cash and a gold ring, while asleep on the early train from Selma this morning. Mr. Brock was returning to Winston from Selma, and with his purse in his hip pocket, lay down to sleep on one of the seats. He awoke and found that he had only six cents left. He could secure no evidence on the train, but this morning went to the office of Master of Trains Williams and found his purse. It had been left there by the train porter and was empty.

A Word to Mothers.

Mothers of children affected with croup or a severe cold need not hesitate to administer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It contains no opiate nor narcotic in any form and may be given as confidently to the babe as to an adult. The great success that has attended its use in the treatment of colds and croup has won for it the approval and praise it has received throughout the United States and in many foreign lands. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggest.

General Wheeler

Taking in the situation around Manila. Now let Uncle Sam relieve Otis and give the old Buttermilk Ranger a half chance and you'll very soon hear the insurgents calling for the calf rope. The name Buttermilk Ranger was given to our cavalry during the 60s. An army to be victorious must have confidence in their leader. Take the record of General Jackson. Why, the soldiers under him knew no such thing as defeat, and to just say that Jackson's in the rear was enough to throw consternation in the camp of the enemy. Confidence is just as important in the commercial world, and the mere mention of the name

HARRY-BELK BROS. CO.

creates a panic in the mercantile arena. We cannot understand how we can always get in the rear of their prices, but this is easily explained. For we have a leader that knows every hog path that leads to the manufacturing plants of this country and keeps posted. In this way you see we only buy from first hands, thereby saving the middleman's profit. Our buyer spends weeks in the market. Take the army of stores—Charlotte, Greensboro, Monroe, and Union, S. C., and you will at once see that it requires tons upon tons of goods to supply them. Buying so largely we take the entire output of a number of factories. In this way we get the inside prices. Our buyer will soon in the manufacturing centres of this union and, like Wheeler in the Philippines, you will hear something drop shortly in old Guilford that will astonish the natives. Before this takes place, and in order to make room, we have made JOB COUNTERS in all departments to clean up many valuable lines at half price. Price is no object. The room is what we want and must have. Be quick.

.....LAND.....
